AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

Before the Court is Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion to Continue All Deadlines and for a New Scheduling Order [Doc. No. 78]. Upon consideration, the Court finds that the Motion should be GRANTED, as set forth herein.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the remaining deadlines are amended as follows:

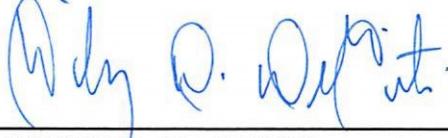

Description	Deadline
Plaintiff's expert witness list	July 5, 2024
Defendants' expert witness list; Plaintiff's final witness and exhibit lists	July 19, 2024
Defendants' final witness and exhibit lists; Defendants' objections to Plaintiff's exhibit list	August 2, 2024
Plaintiff's objections to Defendants' exhibit list	August 16, 2024
Dispositive motions and Daubert motions	August 23, 2024
Discovery cut-off	September 17, 2024
Designations of deposition testimony; motions in limine ; requested voir dire ; trial briefs; requested jury instructions; proposed findings and conclusions of law (if any); Final Pretrial Report	October 4, 2024
Objections to and counter-designations of deposition testimony	October 11, 2024

Description	Deadline
Objections to counter-designations of deposition testimony; objections or responses to motions in limine , requested voir dire , trial briefs, requested jury instructions, and proposed findings and conclusions of law	October 18, 2024
Jury Trial	To Be Set

Unless otherwise ordered, all other provisions of the original Scheduling Order [Doc. No. 64] remain in effect. Further, the provision regarding motions in limine is amended to incorporate an intervening change in the Court's standard scheduling order:

*Motions in limine shall be consolidated into a single filing that is subject to the page limitation in LCvR7.1(e). The motion must include a certificate of conference reciting the efforts made to confer with opposing counsel regarding the motion in limine. Parties are expected to include only disputed issues in their motions in limine.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 27th day of March, 2024.

TIMOTHY D. DEGIUSTI
Chief United States District Judge
